

The New Indian History: A Bibliography
For History 36 at Bakersfield College

NOTE: Not all books are equal; some are much better or worse than others. The following list of books represent a large cross section of the latest studies in Native American history. Other excellent books surely exist, but this collection provides students a variety of text that certainly represent quality. The Grace Van Byrd Library already has most of these titles and is working to acquire the rest.
